Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-39 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The cited prior art taken alone or in combination fails to suggest the claimed invention of translating first information formatted generally relates to management software in a client-server common information model extensible markup language CMI/XML received by the server from the client into second information in format compatible with Windows Management Interface (WMI) and translating vice-versa. Specifically claims 1, 10, 19, 28, 37 and 38 are directed to interfacing operating between first protocol and second protocol and receive first information from client, determine that first protocol is acceptable to allow processing, translating information, reverse translating and managed response into equivalent response compatible with first protocol including computer storage that supply distributed storage management software utilizing both of these IIS and WMI CIMOM software components in a client-server environment, to have both components meet the WBEM standard and to reduce cost.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
